

JAMIE FUGITT

PPGMR LAW PLLC

Entrepreneurship is part of the American dream, and Jamie Fugitt, a partner with PPGMR Law PLLC, helps people achieve their dreams of forming and growing businesses. He also represents those seeking to invest in early-stage companies.

“Every day is challenging and rewarding,” he said. The area is forward-focused and centered on problem solving, he added, and it attracts interesting, talented people. “Many are working not only to be individually successful, but also to have a lasting impact on the industry and community. That passion is infectious,” he said.

Community service is a well-established practice among entrepreneurs, he said. The firm is doing its part by developing mentorship and education programs to assist budding business leaders, he said, and is also working on talent development and corporate engagement.

Fugitt said he spends a good amount of time on the phone or in coffee shops talking to entrepreneurs about their ideas and projects and answering their questions. He logs many miles driving between Central and Northwest Arkansas to have those conversations, he added.
